CONTINUED BUSINESS

- Student Art Show Update. Retrieval completed; Jennifer will return the artwork to the schools this week.
- Public Art Funding: Pat distributed handouts representing a number of items discussed at the retreat that he and Ed had subsequently polished following their meeting with Scott. These included a fund raising plan, a project priority list and background for the Commission's request to Council to implement a fund raising plan. Some of the materials will be presented to Council, and some will be included on the art page of the city's website. The group also determined that a link to the arts page should be included on the front page of the City website; currently you get to it through the Parks & Recreation link which is not intuitive. Once there, we would have a button for contributing to the Public Arts process.
